The Spirit of You in the

WHISPERING PINES
1963

Published by Yearbook Staff
EDNEYVILLE HIGH SCHOOL
Edneyville, North Carolina

Bold youth . . . fresh wisdom . . . clear vision . . . the spirit of you. The Whispering Pines affirms the reason and being of a vital you. A spontaneous laugh, that lively crowd, or favorite events are only pictures of captured images bound and dated, '63 memories made to order. Uncaptured and unconquered in a black and white abstract is the portrayal of youth, wisdom, and vision — the image of your spirit.

"In all external grace you have some part, but you like none"... MRS. ELAINE BURROUGHS, we dedicate this 1963 WHISPERING PINES to you "for constant heart. . in every blessed shape we know."

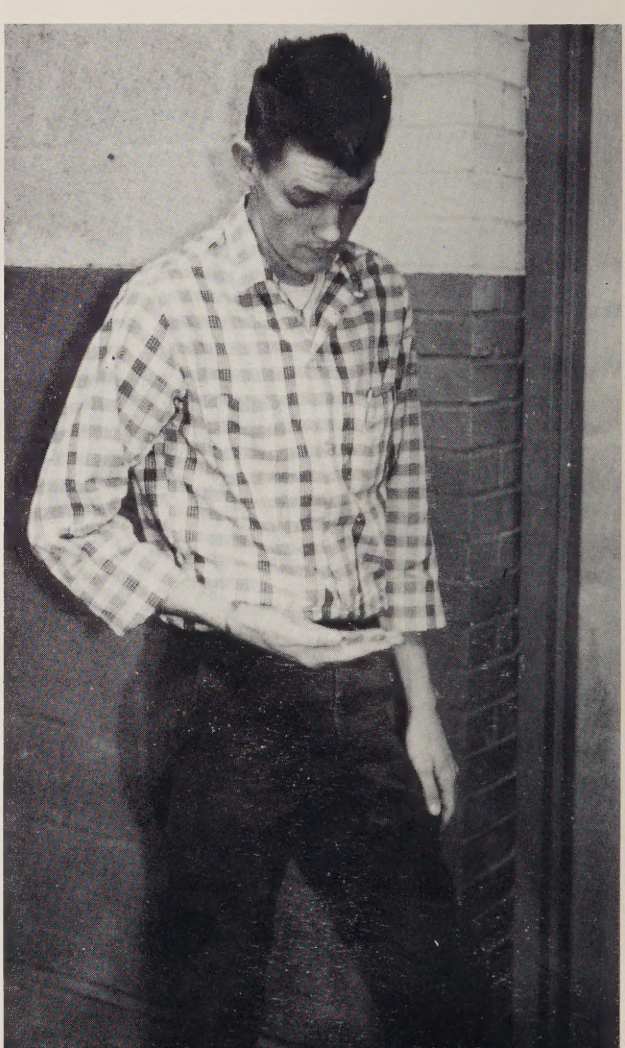
In the hills among the pine trees
Reared against the sky...
Hail to Thee, our Alma Mater,
Edneyville, all hail.

The Pride of 1962 -- our newly completed football stadium!

FALL is a lingering time ... another school year brings new days, great plans, and old friends together for a new beginning.

Student council elections bring campaign promises, student cheers, and a new president.

Studies bring new realizations: "Some books are to be tasted, others to be swallowed, and some few to be chewed and digested."



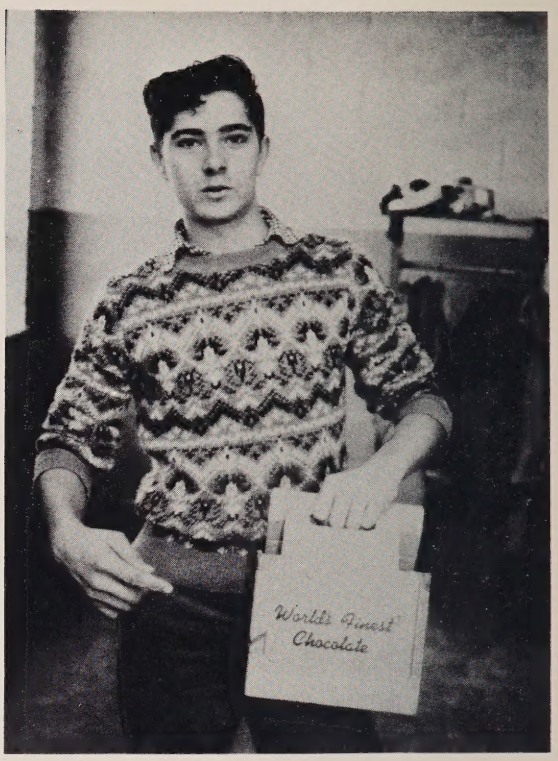
A meditation on inflation is made by an incredulous EHS student.

"The Bobbsey Twins at the Carnival" is a best-seller with Halloween goblins and candied apples.

Homecoming punch drowns any sorrows, cheers to celebration night.

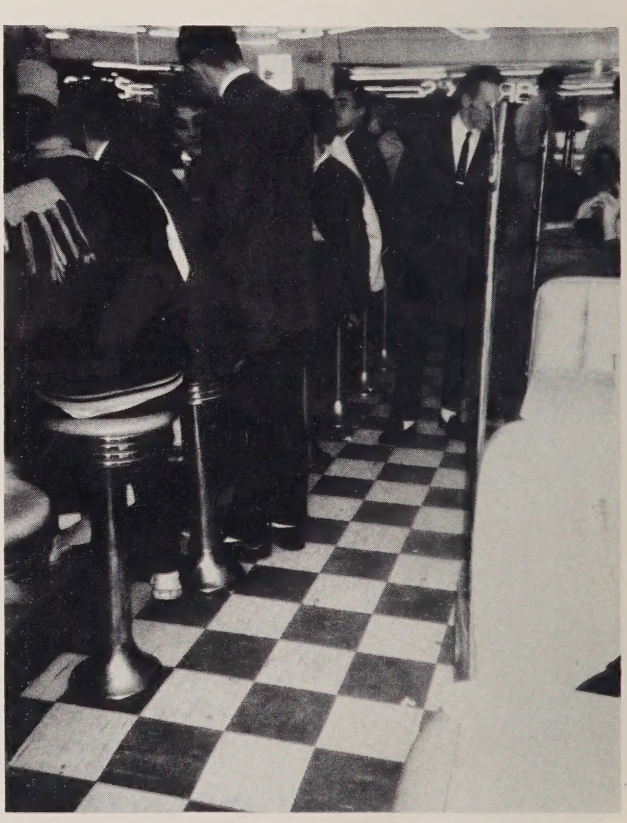
Hoist the Gold and Black, Boys, and pass the powderpuffs with a Jumpjacket cheer.

WINTER is a gay season ... stamping boots invade school projects, sports, and festivities. "If Winter comes, can Spring be far behind?"

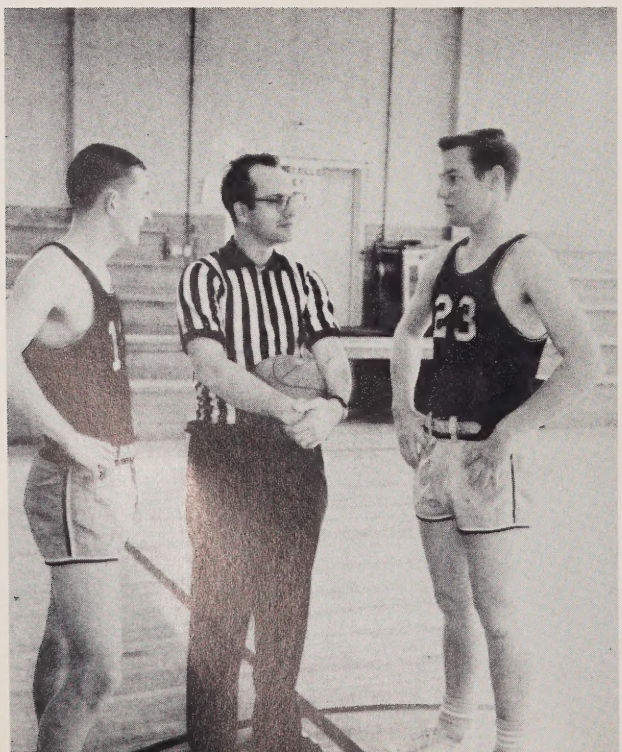


A pound of the World's Finest Chocolate, Sir? --all profits toward our new field house!

Win or lose, jubilant people always celebrate at Brocks.



Twice weekly, Edneyville athletes and fans join efforts to win in basketball.



A tree glistening with star and tinsel, bejewels a holiday festivity.

"Turn not away from a love-sick suppliant, Katisha... mercy!" -- Mikado

Purchasing the essentials, a Beta prepares for a family feast.

SPRING is a time of promise ... pink apple blossoms, light-hearted days, and a rising flag bathe the school year in warm memories and future hopes.

The coveted tap from a Beta Club member brings an invitation to join the ranks of scholar and leader.

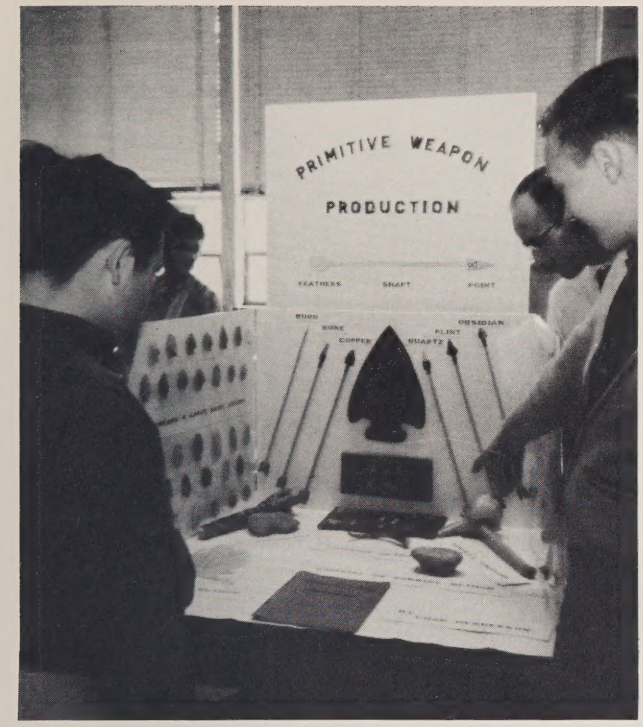
Mountain showers and budding couples--this is spring.



Follow the arrows to a blue ribbon in the Edneyville Science Fair.

A morning ritual, the flag rises, and the day begins.

With a lei presented by a native, enjoy the Junior-Senior Banquet, Hawaiian style.

Spirit of You . . .

An Edneyville Administration with faculty co-operation emphasizes the Academic Program With four types of diplomas' being offered, Edneyville prepares its students for business careers in five commercial courses. Vocational courses are practical as well as popular among students in the eight offered classes. The college bound prepare by concentrating on nine college preparatory subjects. With the spirit of learning, a competent faculty geared to today's educational demands is dedicated to molding the lives and talents of Edneyville students.

WILMA EDNEY ---------- Treasurer
LUCILLE WATKINS ---------- Reporter

The Senior year was a year of decision. The leaders in clubs, athletics, and projects had many tasks to assign and carry out.

Seniors really began to become serious as they took College Boards and mailed applications to business schools, nursing schools, or colleges.

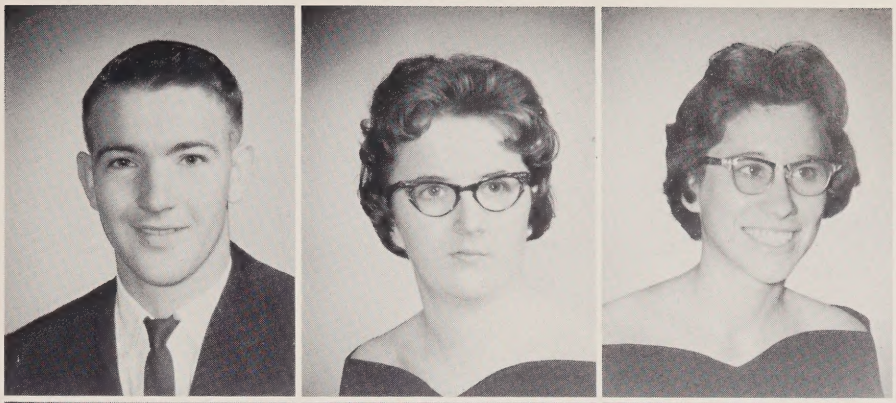
The days before graduation for 50 seniors became days of reminiscing as they realized high school was almost over and life was before them.

"... because I know
That the time is now to fulfill each vow--
For I may never pass this way again."

HOYTE LEE ALBERTSON
"One of the football stars--at least he's always out at night."

NANCY BALLARD
"Politeness is a fine quality to possess."

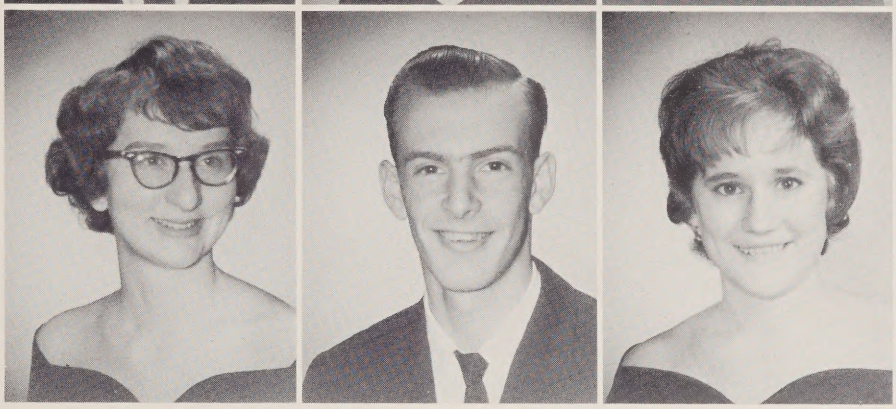
JUDITH JEANETTE BREVARD
"Her charming quietness speaks volumes."



BEVERLY JOYCE BURROUGHS
"It is better to live a day as a lion than a hundred years as a lamb."

THOMAS CLARENCE CLINGENPEEL
"He knows when to speak and when to be silent."

DONNA SUE CORN
"A dancing shape, an image gay..."

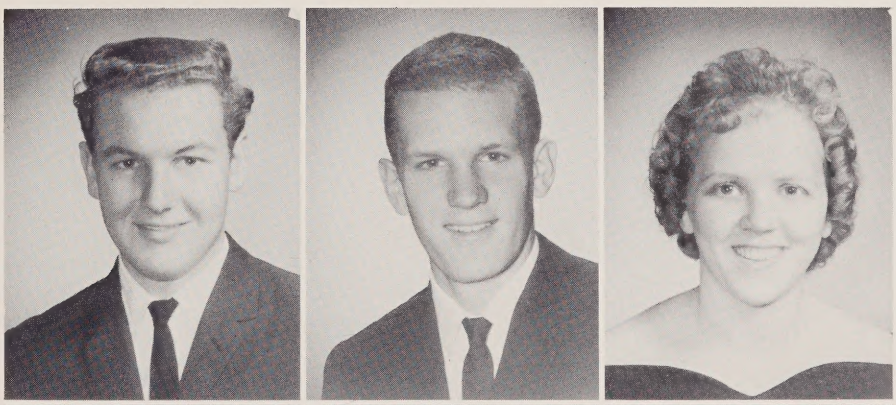


The chosen five lead fifty seniors.

WILLIAM JAMES COSTON
"I like work; it fascinates me; I can sit and watch it for hours."

GAYLERD EARL DAVIS
"A tall boy with ideas to match."

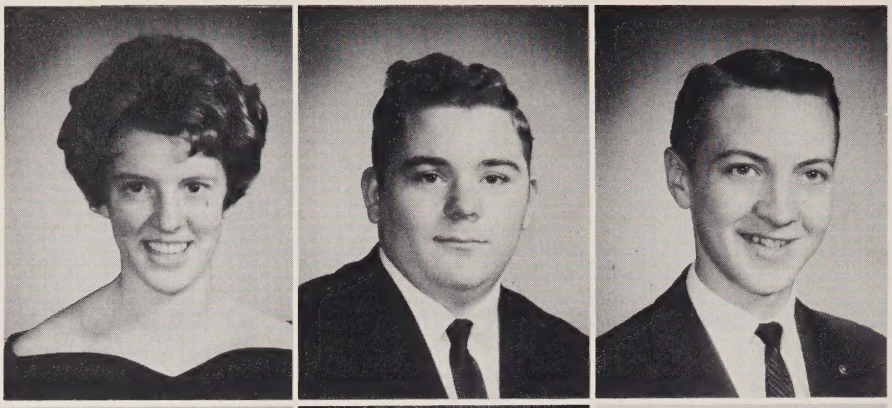
BETTY EDITH EDNEY
"Not too serious, not too gay, but a true girl in every way."



WAYNE DEAN EDNEY
"Life's too funny for me to explain; one day it's sunny, the next day it's rain."

WILMA JEAN EDNEY
"It's nice to be natural when you're naturally nice."

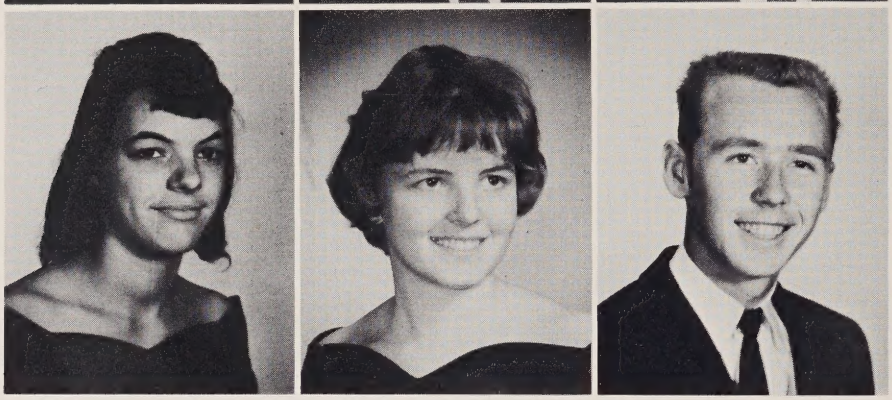
BEVERLY JEANNE FREEMAN
"A warm personality mingled with friendship, neatness, and unselfishness."



MARTHA ANDERSON GALE
"If she will, she will; and she usually can."

JOHN CLYDE GIBBS, JR.
"So what if I'm not a genius; I'm friendly."

JAMES CHADWICK HENDERSON
"I will study and get ready, and I know my chance will come."



LINDA LUE HILL
"She is a phantom of delight."

SARAH LEE HILL
"Music is well said to be the truth of angels."

ARNOLD RAY JUSTUS
"Sense, sincerity, and sympathy-three graces of a gentleman."

For the college minded, English IV, French II, and Trig.

JANICE OVEDA JUSTUS
"Her idea of making friends is being one."

SOLAN WAYNE KERR
"Sometimes I sit and think; sometimes I just sit."

CARROLL EARL LANCE
"Anybody can carry the ball; it takes a man to block."

WAYNE DELANO LANNING
"He either finds a way or makes one."

JANET RUTH LAUGHTER
"A neat, well-dressed girl is she."

RITA FAYE LAWTER
"Quiet but not idle."

DANIEL BRUCE LEDBETTER
"To love knowledge is to gain wisdom."

BARBARA DIANE LEDFORD
"Meet her, know her, and you'll never forget her."

ELLA KAY LYDA
"Her ways are ways of pleasantness."

LARRY EDWARD LYDA
"A quiet mind is richer than a crown."

THOMAS PAUL McCRAW
"He's well known for his friendliness and good sportsmanship."

NORMAN JESSE McMINN
"Early to rise and ditto to bed, makes a man healthy, but socially dead."

Magazine sales shower victorious with a litter of pups.

Dog Day among exuberant seniors marks a reached magazine-sales goal of $1200.00.

Day breaks in the mountains and sets in the big city. A Washington of statue, street, and song delights 33 Senior tourists.

An E.H.S. banner flies on the Washington bound.

JOE WAYNE MELTON
"Ask not what you can do for your country, but what your country can do for you."

LEONARD NEWMAN
"A laughter lurking in his eyes..."

ELSIE MARIE NIX
"A cute little bundle of fun and good deeds."

SYLVIA ELLEN NIX
"A pretty girl is like a picture.'

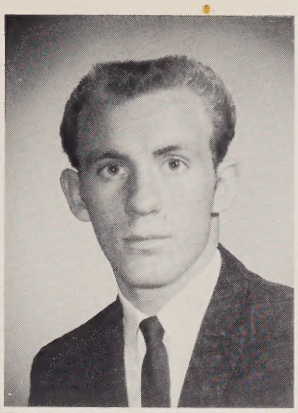
ELLEN ANNETTE O'CONNOR
"Mischievous often, dignified sometimes, popular always."

JACK SIDNEY O'CONNOR
"All great men are dead or dying, and I don't feel so well myself."

LARRY RAY OGLE
"Live long, love hard, run fast."

PEGGY ANN OGLE
"Sweet, little and refined."

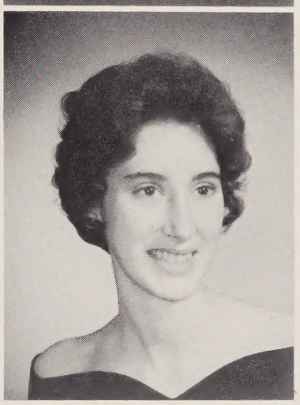
JEAN VICTORIA OWENBY
"A cute combination of sense and nonsense."



FRANCES EMILY PARRIS
"The way to be happy is to make others so."

ALICE MARIE PRYOR
"Thine eyes are seen in emeralds bright."

AURELIA JANE PRYOR
"Her goodness enlightens her attractiveness."



The Big White House on the hill--we left it.

Stepping briskly on 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, Seniors laugh and wonder at a Thanksgiving at home with the Kennedys.

TERRY EUGENE RHODES
"My specialty is being right when others are wrong."

HAZEL RUFF
"A fine combination of personality and good looks."

WILLIAM FRANKIE STEPP
"There are no great men; only great challenges which ordinary men face."

REBECCA ANN TURNER
"The girl who wins is the girl who works."

FRANCES LUCILLE WATKINS
"The busy bee has no time for sorrow."

DANIEL CLAUDE WILLIAMS
"Give the world the best that you have and the best will come back to you."

Doctor, Lawyer . . . Pick a term paper, people.

Job Advancement---excellent; Pay ---Fair; Retirement--Possible.
TOTAL EVALUATION:
My Career as a Contortionist
English IV Term Paper
1963

The tropical atmosphere of food, dance, and song lures Junior-Senior guests to a Hawaiian welcome.

Step into the Gold Room, Seniors, and on to graduation.

MARY SUE WILSON
"Her sunny smile, her radiant ways help to brighten all our days."

DONALD CARROLL YOUNG
"I am fairly intelligent myself; I just have lots of stupid help."

Donning the traditional white, seniors exit to new roles on bigger stages."

The Juniors - 51 strong - were shocked to find that they had to develop more mature study habits in order to master chemistry, geometry, French, bookkeeping, and shorthand. With a spirit of determination to raise money for the "best" Junior-Senior Banquet, they presented their fathers in a "Womanless Wedding", sponsored programs, and made their debut in the field of drama.

Juniors anticipate wearing the class ring.

Spirit of You . . .

Flashing lights, shrilling whistles and cheering crowds can only mean Edneyville is about to play. Spirits are high, for EHS athletes are agile and deft on field, court, or diamond. In both victory and defeat, athletes and fans laugh and sing, "We've got the spirit. . . ", adding a final Rah for EHS.

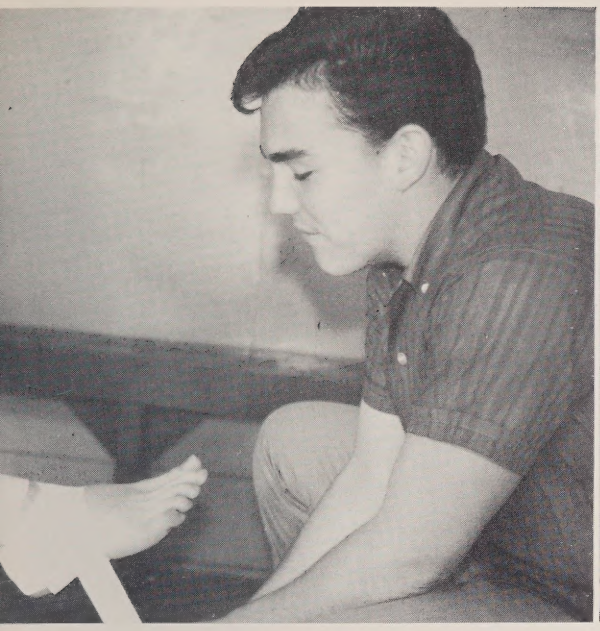
*Home Games.

Co-Captain Sarah, the last of the Hills, winds up for a two-point special.

Co-Captain Jeanne Freeman sights a game basket.



Manager Billy Cox spares no tape on injured ankles.

Tension rises as Edneyville shoots.

Coach Harris Pryor is dubbed Towel-Slinger by amused fans.

Edneyville squads stride toward team plays and points.

A perfect basket ends four years of practice for five senior boys.

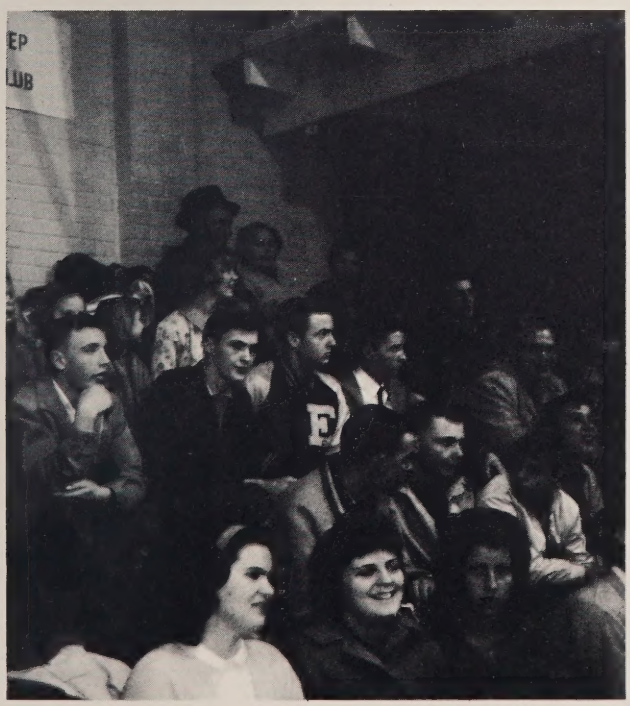
Official scorekeeper, Wayne Lanning, is present at all scoring events--loud and laughing.

Hoyt, Larry, and James are bat boys of the finest sort.

Gold coats and black ties mark Edneyville athletes at football and basketball games.

True sportsmen aren't always in uniform.

Pep Club members sound rousing cheers at home games...sometimes.



Alan waits for a whistling GO at a spring track meet.

Spirit of You . . .

Dancing, Dating, Dreaming, Determining... Edneyville royalty weave new colors into the May Pole. Spirit is a shimmering something, a substance transforming youth to royalty when one dances... and dreams.

in Features

Endeared to our hearts is our queen...in the Homecoming ceremony, as the Apple Harvest Festival representative, on the May Day court, and before her audience... Miss Ann Turner.

A study in classic charm and personality, our High Miss and Christmas queen... Miss Wilma Edney.

Co-Captains Hubert Burgess and Johnny Laughter escort Homecoming Queen Ann Turner in the half-time ceremonies.

LOVELAND'S STUDIOS

A loving farewell from proof readers Beverly, Sandy, and Wayne, (Ellen in the kitchen), and the 1963 WHISPERING PINES goes to press.
